RWC 2023 – Form 2 Extended Trading Hours – Premises Display Notice

Rugby World Cup 2023 - Extended Trading Hours - Premises Display Notice

This premises will be operating during the following times to televise live Rugby World Cup 2023 games which take place outside our usual trading hours.

The extension of opening hours is permitted under the Sale and Supply of Alcohol (Rugby World Cup 2023 Extended Trading Hours) Amendment Act 2023, provided we comply with certain conditions.

Please note: We are required by law to stop selling alcohol 30 minutes after the game ends

Date	Game	Opening and Closing Hours
_
_
_
_

Date	Game	Opening and Closing Hours

General Statement

This notice must be displayed with any notice to extend the premises trading hours, and any premises licence.

The Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 also requires us to comply with the following conditions to extend our trading hours:

- 1. Our primary or sole purpose of extending our trading hours is to televise live Rugby World Cup 2023 games.
- 2. The extended trading hours period will be treated as if it were part of the permitted trading hours under section 46(1) and 259(1)(a) of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 (the Act), and we must comply with:
 - o all applicable requirements and restrictions under the Act unless they are overridden by the temporary amendments to the Act (sections 45A-45H)
 - the conditions of our licence and any local alcohol policy unless they are overridden by 45A-45H
 - o our normal noise restriction conditions, and the following noise management conditions while operating during the extended hours:
 - we cannot use open areas¹ for any purpose (this means our smoking and vaping area will be closed)
 - we cannot use audio equipment (such as loudspeakers, amplifiers, or audio relay equipment) in an open area, and
 - we cannot dispose of or leave bottles or other rubbish for collection in an open area.
- 3. We will also make the following arrangements to manage noise levels in a way that is appropriate to our location:

4. Any restrictions on operating hours imposed under section 9 of the Resource Management Act 1991 do not apply during the extended hours.

¹ "Open area" is defined in section 2(1) of the Smokefree Environments and Regulated Products Act 1990 as any area that is not an "internal area". An "internal area" is defined as, essentially, any area within a premises that is enclosed by a ceiling or roof, walls, and windows and doors that shut.