MINUTE CONCERNING NPS-UDC AND PORPS

1. In response to the Hearing Panel's three Minutes¹ on the above matters we have received two Memoranda from the Council dated 3 March 2017: one dealing with the Proposed Regional Policy Statement ("PRPS"), and the other dealing with the National Policy Statement on Urban Development Capacity ("NPS-UDC"). In each Memorandum counsel for the Council has set out the reasons why the Council considers it need make no additional submissions in respect of these documents.
2. The purpose of this Minute to provide those submitters that have previously appeared before the Hearing Panel and either:
 - a) Relied on provisions in the PRPS in their submissions and evidence; or
 - b) Presented submissions and evidence on matters germane to the contents of the NPS-UDC,to lodge written submissions to the Panel dealing solely with how the changes in the Decisions Version of the PRPS (as compared to the Notified Version), or the coming into force of the NPS-UDC, alter the position previously presented in the relevant submissions or evidence.
3. Such submissions are to be lodged with the Council by 4pm on Friday 17th March 2017.

¹ First Minute on Proposed RPS dated 7 October 2016, second Minute on Proposed RPS dated 8 February 2017 and Minute concerning NPSUDC dated 8 February 2017

4. For those hearings yet to commence, submissions and evidence on the Proposed RPS and the NPS-UDC can be included in the material lodged by submitters in accordance with the timetabling directions for the relevant hearing.
5. The request by counsel for the Council in paragraph 20 of the Memorandum on the NPS-UDC seeking directions in respect of lodgement of supplementary evidence in respect of hearing streams yet to commence will be the subject of separate Minutes.
