Hi Nicky,

Thanks for the heads up. I will be on the high seas on June 2. Please give my apologies.

At the end of the day it doesn't bother me too much whether the LLU zoning is LLU A (4000 m2) or LLU B (2000 m2). I did suggest it should be 2000 m2 in my submission.

The boundary line between LDR and LLU A or B on my block is random. It should be a straight line.

Those are my only comments and a summary of my submission.

If you can say that on my behalf during your submission, thanks. If not, no drama.

Cheers,

john

Hi Jbb, JSB and JSB

I went in today to speak at the Mapping hearing, but the timetable has been changed. Not sure if either of you have planned to speak or have Graeme Todd speak on your behalf - you're down for Friday 2nd June at 11.50am (John and Jill) and 12.40 (John and Jude) - see 'here' below for the timetable. You may not feel the need to appear, but I just thought I'd let you know it's on next week in case you had missed the date.
