This Council will only adopt the schedule up to the date of the 2022 local elections.

All that is assumed thereafter signals dates for the first meetings of Council and the Community Board, and a proposed date for adopting the Annual Report.

¹ LGNZ Guidance is to hold the last ordinary meeting of Council ahead of the four-week voting period. Committees may continue and urgent matters dealt with through an emergency or extraordinary meeting of Council.

² First meeting of the new Council must be as soon as practicable but with no less than seven days' notice

³ The Annual Report must be adopted within four months of the end of the financial year. It's assumed the Annual Report won't be ready for the last ordinary meeting of the triennium in early September
